- C. Any dispute concerning the reasonableness or adequacy of the compensation under the Contract shall be resolved by reference to the value of the Contract as a whole and not by reference to a single case or to a portion of the cases that Contractor has performed under the Contract. The value of the Contract as a whole shall be determined by reference to the following factors:

- B. Probation violations;

- D. Special actions filed in an Arizona appellate court.

3. ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

- B. OCC may assign to Contractor up to forty (40) additional cases, per contract year ("Excess Cases") at $350.00 each (the "Additional Fee").
- C. OCC will credit Contractor with one appointment for each assigned client.
- D. OCC will not appoint counsel on citations for incorrigibility with the exception that the contractor may be properly assigned to represent a juvenile who has been cited under Title 13 (Arizona Criminal Code) and the prosecuting authority filed a citation instead of a long form complaint.
- E. If contractor withdraws or is relieved from a case, contractor must have worked six hours on the case in order to receive credit.

4. ADDITIONAL CHARGES AFTER ASSIGNMENT

OCC shall give Contractor additional Credit for representing a Client on multiple matters that are not joined for trial or plea, subject to the following conditions:

- A. One-half (½) credit if all matters are ended or resolved in a plea.
- B. One credit (1) for each matter that proceeds to a separate trial.

5. CLIENT'S FAILURE TO APPEAR

In the event a Client fails to appear for a proceeding, Contractor shall resume the representation when the juvenile subsequently appears.

If contractor is unable or unwilling for any reason to pursue a matter on appeal it is the contractor's responsibility to obtain substitute contract counsel to pursue the appeal and to notify OCC of the name of the substituting contract counsel. Substitute contract counsel will then be compensated at the rate of an additional credit for each appeal. Contractor and substitute counsel will be responsible for filing whatever motions are necessary to obtain the appropriate court's approval of the substitution of counsel.

SECTION III COMPENSATION/CONSIDERATION

1. COMPENSATION

This section specifies and limits the amount of compensation that OCC shall pay Contractor for the services, promises, representations, covenants and warranties in this Contract. Subject to availability and authorization of funds for the contract period July 1, 2002 to June 30, 2004, the County will pay the Contractor $35,000.00, per contract year, for representation on the first one hundred (100) cases assigned during the contract period. Payment on additional cases shall be made as soon as practicable following assignment. This is a two (2) year contract, with the 1st year period defined as July 1, 2002 thru June 30, 2003, and the 2nd year period defined as July 1, 2003, thru June 30, 2004.

If the contractor terminates the contract prior to its expiration, contractor shall be required to complete a pro rata share of cases calculated on a monthly basis or to return excess funds received. For example, if the contractor terminates the contract after six months, but has been assigned less than one-half of the total number of cases required for that contract year, contractor will be required to accept additional assignments to reach one-half of the annual number of cases or to repay to OCC an equivalent dollar amount.

2. METHOD OF PAYMENT

- A. Subject to the availability of funds, the OCC will process and remit to the Contractor a warrant for payment of $2916.67 for the first 11 months of the contract and a payment of $2916.63 for the 12th month of the contract, per contract year (on the third Friday of each month) during the term of the Contract.
- B. A claim form must be submitted for any case for which additional compensation has been authorized pursuant to Section II, Paragraph 3(B), above on the form approved by OCC and within six (6) months of the date of appointment to the case.
- C. Should there be a disallowance of a portion of any claim, the claim shall be processed for the reduced amount. If the Contractor protests the amount or the reason for a disallowance, the protest shall be construed as a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the Disputes Clause of the General Provisions of this Contract.
- D. The Office of Contract Counsel will not honor any claim for payment submitted more than six months after date of appointment. After that time, a claim must be submitted to the County Attorney's Office, Division of County Counsel.

3. TAXES AND BENEFITS

Contractor assumes sole and exclusive responsibility for payment of any federal and state income taxes, federal social security taxes, unemployment insurance benefits, workman's compensation and other mandatory governmental obligations, if any, and any pension or retirement program.
